14 people have recommended Misha

"Misha has helped me tremendously on my healing path. I have been dealing with a complex and long-standing illness and Misha's treatments made a real difference. In addition, I've sent family and friends to see her and they've all gotten tremendous results from their work with her. I trust her with my health."

— Debra Russell, was Misha's client

"Misha is a great acupuncturist. She is very knowledgeable and has a warm manner with patients. I have been recommending her to all my colleagues and friends for over 20 years."

— Beth Custer, was Misha's client

"Misha is a remarkable resource and leader in the women's health field. I have admired her work with individual patients as well as in the role of community educator. She is at the top of her field, highly informed and very helpful to all."

— Betty Sullivan, Founder & Editor, Betty's List / Sullivan Communications, Inc, was with another company when working with Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"Misha Cohen is a wonderful practitioner in the Alternative Medicine field. It was a pleasure being a part of the Chicken Soup Chinese Medicine team and to have learned so much from working with Misha Her work and dedication to the field has is an inspiration."

— Jin Choe, Volunteer Clinic Assistant, Chicken Soup Chinese Medicine, reported to Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"Misha was an instructor for my education in Chinese medicine. Misha, as an instructor reflects the focused mind-set she has as a practitioner; paying attention to details and defining clearly what needs to be done on a step-by-step basis. I have had the pleasure of working under Misha's instruction on a few different occasions, she has always been friendly and helpful, concerned about the needs of others and patiently works through questions and situations. I look forward to working with her again and highly recommend having her as an instructor as well as a colleague."

— Phranque Wright, Owner, Wright To The Point Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, was with another company when working with Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"Misha is a wonderfully warm, caring person and has a fantastic mind for acupuncture and Chinese Medicine. I was thrilled to work with her as a volunteer and wholeheartedly endorse her and her foundation. She has a great presence and is an excellent teacher and mentor."

— Larissa Parson, Volunteer, Chicken Soup Chinese Medicine, reported to Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"Misha is unparalleled in her field as a healer, scientist and caregiver. I personally have enjoyed hugely improved health as a direct result of her care and have seen first hand the healing of many many people that resulted from her care, attention and knowledge of Traditional Chinese Medicine and the concerns of patients today. She is a living treasure!"

— Suzanne Wright Baumhackl, was Misha's client

"Misha has a long and outstanding career in OM as a provider, teacher and author. She is an asset to the medical community, and to her patients and students. I've enjoyed studying with Misha at her clinic and at the Oregon College of Oriental Medicine, she is truly a joy and inspiration to those of us committed to the study and practice of OM."

— Kevin Pett, DAOM PhD, DOM, Acupuncture & Herbology Clinic PC, was with another company when working with Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"Misha is a leader in traditional Chinese Medicine as well as natural healing. She has been instrumental in developing unique research on Chinese herbs. For example , Misha has been an investigator on one of the first double blind herbal experiments in the United States. As part of her leadership, Misha shares her knowlege with students all over the world. Her classes on HIV and Hepatitis demonstrate rare fluency in both western science and compementary and alternative medicine(CAM)."

— Andrew Gaeddert, President, Health Concerns, worked directly with Misha at Misha Ruth Cohen Education Foundation (MRCEF)

"As Misha's Assistant Director and a Mentored Practitioner, I've gotten a privileged insight into how she works as a clinician and a teacher. I've seen Misha provide unparalleled care to her patients in an incredibly kind and super-competent manner. I've seen patient after patient relax in her presence, knowing they are not only receiving fantastic traditional Chinese medical care, but that they are receiving the best in integrated healthcare through her efforts to team with western physicians - a fact of profound comfort to patients dealing with sometimes frightening diagnoses and discomfiting symptoms."

— Nancy Legato, L.Ac., Assistant Director, Chicken Soup Chinese Medicine, reported to Misha at Chicken Soup Chinese Medicine

"I have seen Misha for different conditions on and off for ten years now. I have seen other acupuncturists over the years when I wasn't living in the Bay Area, and Misha has always given me the best care. Her years of experience and knowledge of how to combine eastern with western medicine make her unusually talented. In addition, Misha is a gifted healer, always knowing how to tune into a patient's needs in order to give the best care. I recommend her well above any other health care professional I have ever seen, and I think of her as my primary care physician."

— Andrea Hurd, was Misha's client

"Misha's clinic provide a professional, compassionate care environment that for me has made a significant impact on my health. Her attention to detail and to her patients needs is second to none."

— Michael Beutler, was Misha's client

"Misha is great Chinese Medicine practitioner, highly recommended."

— Luis Delgado, was Misha's client

"It was hard to pick only three top attributes for Misha and her practice, Chinese Chicken Soup Medicine. So many apply. I guess for me, "Great Results" is the most important. I went to Chinese Chicken Soup Medicine for accupuncture because of infertility and I would have to say it worked. I now have healthy and beautiful twin girls, thriving at 8 months old. But nearly as important as the result was the experience. Misha's treatment was truly like the name of her company, comforting like chicken soup. Accupuncture can be scary. I mean, needles! But she has such a relaxed confidence that you quickly forget the needles and settle in for an hour of sheer relaxation. I highly recommend her practice and would still be a patient of hers, had I not moved out of state. I miss her! martha phillips"
